

Justin Dennis

Camden Program Director, The Trust for Public Land

Justin Dennis is Camden Program Director with The Trust for Public Land where he oversees Community Schoolyard development, works with communities to develop capacity for green space stewardship, and is leading the implementation of The Camden Parks and Open Space Plan. Prior to joining The Trust for Public Land, Justin worked in various capacities with New Jersey Conservation Foundation, the New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection, and New York-New Jersey Trail Conference. Justin holds dual BA's in Environmental Studies & Sustainability and Anthropology from Drew University, and has expertise in park and trail development, site remediation, and natural resource and invasive species management. Justin is passionate about working with Camden's communities to rebuild power and agency in decision-making, and spends most of his free time camping, snowboarding, and spending time with his nephews, friends, and cats.
